

Draftsman (E&M)

Responsibilities:

- To Prepare single services / E&M shop drawings including layout drawing, Pipe duct details, plant room details, CSD & CBWD
- Prepare CAD drawing with accuracy
- Ensure drawings conform to project's requirements and instructions from project engineers
- Coordinate drawing/modification changes with concerned parties
- Keep records of version history and version control of the drawings
- Capable in handling project independently and under pressure

Requirements:

- Min 5 years or above working experiences AutoCAD
- DSE or Certificate or Diploma in Building Services Engineering or related disciplines
- Competent use of computing software (such as MS Office)
- Good communication skills
- Proficient in English and Chinese
- Strong sense of responsibility and commitment on project timeline
- Hardworking and energetic and work independent
- Immediate availability is preferable

We offer competitive remuneration package to the right candidate. Interested parties please send full resume with current and expected salary, and availability by sending to hr@shunhingeng.com.

All Personal data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only.